

World Association of Soil and Water Conservation (WASWC)

The mission of the World Association of Soil and Water Conservation (WASWC), a global forum for scientists and conservationists in soil and water, is to promote worldwide the application of wise soil and water management practices that will improve and safeguard the quality of land and water resources so that they continue to meet the needs of agriculture, society and nature.

Contacts

Type of organisation: Conservation organisation

Contacts: Samran Sombatpanit
E-mail: sombatpanit@yahoo.com
<http://www.waswc.org/>

Latest member

Latest organisation to join the network

Foret pour le developpement integral (FODI)
FODI is an organization that supports four communities in the development of four forest concessions to local communities in the territory of Walikale in the northeast of the Park National of...

Join us

Hanging plant. Photo by CIFOR

Our work

We generate and share information to improve our understanding of poverty-conservation issues.

More about our work

International Network

The focus of PCLG is on the links between biodiversity conservation and poverty reduction in Africa, Asia and Central and South America. We welcome individual members or representatives of conservation, development or indigenous/local community organisations.

As a member, you will receive PCLG's newsletters as well as timely emails updating you on opportunities (e.g. fundraising opportunities or calls for papers).

To join the PCLG network, please send an email pclg@iied.org including your:

- Name
- Organisation (if applicable)
- Country of residence
- Email address
- Expression of interest (i.e. reason why you would like to join PCLG).

Membership is free.

National groups